Reflection by Greg Sunter

The three gospel accounts from the final three weeks leading up to the season of Advent all come from Chapter 25 of the Gospel of Matthew. They can be seen together as an extended treatise on living life in response to Jesus' message and preparing for the end of time. This week's gospel starts out as a Kingdom parable and becomes a bit more of a metaphor for living a Christian life.

The gospel parable relates to ten bridesmaids – five foolish and five wise – who are participating in a wedding ritual that involves meeting the bridegroom and escorting him the last part of his way to the wedding reception. The foolish bridesmaids have not brought sufficient reserves of oil for their lamps and have to leave at the critical time to try to obtain more. When they eventually arrive at the reception hall they are turned away because they have shamed themselves as well as the bride and groom by not fulfilling their duty.

Some of the original audience of Matthew's gospel, along with many of the early Christian followers, had an expectation that Jesus was going to return and usher in the end of the world in their lifetime. The message of this gospel is captured in Jesus' final words, 'So stay awake, because you do not know either the day or the hour.' The timing of Jesus' coming cannot be predicted and so all Christian believers, like the bridesmaids, need to continue to act with hope and expectation; being prepared for the fact that it may be further off than anticipated. Many early Christians were living their lives as though the world would end at any time. The gospel warns them, and us, to continue to follow the example of Jesus and not to become complacent – expecting that everything is about to come to an end.

Prison Sunday

Prison Sunday commenced in 2016, during the Year of Mercy, as an initiative of Pope Francis to observe the Jubilee for Prisoners. "We need to nourish the roots of our hope so that they can bear fruit ... despite whatever evil we have done. There is no corner of our heart that cannot be touched by God's love," Pope Francis said at the time.

Each year on the 32nd Sunday in Ordinary, the Catholic Church in Australia marks Prison Sunday, bringing attention to the plight of prisoners and highlighting the important work that prison chaplains undertake.

Children's Liturgy of the Word will be held TODAY, Sunday, 12 November, during 9.00am Mass, and then on Sunday 26 November. All primary school aged children are welcome to attend.

November - Month of Remembrance

- November Mass Offering Envelopes

November Mass Offering Envelopes (yellow envelopes with red print) are available from the tables near the church entrance. When you fill in the envelope, please print clearly so they can be easily read. Envelopes can be returned via the basket in front of the Book of Remembrance, or at either collection at Sunday Mass, or to the parish office.

- Book of Remembrance

The Book of Remembrance, which lists the names of your departed loved ones, will be displayed on the sanctuary during the Month of November.

Similar to the last few of years, please do not enter names into the Book of Remembrance. Instead, fill in a November Mass Offering Envelope and return via one of the ways listed above. The parish office staff will then type up the names from the returned envelopes and place them into the Book of Remembrance.

Wall of Remembrance

In 1998, a Wall of Remembrance was established behind the church as a way for parishioners to have a permanent memorial for their loved ones.

For further information, including the reserving of a space and/or ordering of a plaque, please contact the parish office.

Parish Finance Council Meeting

A reminder to Parish Finance Council members that the next PFC meeting will be held this Monday, 13 November, 7.00pm in the Parish Library.

St Vincent de Paul Meeting

The next meeting of St Vincent de Paul will be held this Tuesday, 14 November, 7.00pm, in the Aquinas Room (room underneath the Church). New members are more than welcome to attend.

IMPORTANT: Car Park - Friday 9.00am Mass 17 November

Parishioners are advised that parking may be limited for 9.00am Mass on Friday 17 November. This is due to St Martin's holding their Dominican Pillar Awards Ceremony at 8.40am in the Dominic Centre.

We will do our best to ensure that the majority of the car parks marked CHURCH are left for those attending 9.00am Mass on Friday. However you may wish to give yourself an extra few minutes, just in case you need to park down the street.

Sunday 5.30pm Kids' Mass

The 3rd Sunday of the Month 5.30pm Kids' Mass will be held next Sunday, 19 November.

Children can participate by reading, taking up the collection, handing out newsletters, or bringing up the gifts. You need to be available to bring them to the church around 5pm for a little coaching. To take part, go to www.schoolinterviews.com.au and using code 6tg2y, register for the ministry of your choice.
